Description of events:

Welcome tea is exactly what it says on the tin – an opportunity to have a cup of tea with something sweet in relaxing atmosphere with other Freshers and older students. JCR Welfare Officer Helen will be there if you have any concerns or just need someone to talk to.

Dinners & breakfasts together – make sure you know where the Buttery is and how you pay for the meals! Also a great opportunity to meet new people.

Getting to know each other & games – some ice-breaking games + light snacks = an opportunity for you to know more about fellow Newnhamites (well, at least three key facts – name, country and subject!)

Newnham & city tours, short Newnham tours - Some vital places to know: banks, supermarkets, marketplace, University sites & colleges, as well as opportunity to buy a gown at Ryder & Amies in town! Also Newnham layout: library, Buttery, gym, Art room and curiosities like Princess room and the second longest corridor in Europe

Film & pizza night - JCR Ethnic Minorities Officer Divya tell you more about her role at Newnham with pizza and a film (more details later) to follow.

English tea and games with Newnham Christian Union – some real English tea and very English games plus an opportunity to learn more about Newnham Christian Union events organised by iCUSU:

Welcome Dinner (Wednesday September 28, 18. 30, venue TBC) - Come join us for a chilled dinner and meet the rest of the international crew at this event! A well-attended event for early arrivers!

City Tour and Punting (Wednesday September 28, Thursday September 29, Guild Hall (Market Square), 2pm) - The City Tour, conducted by iCUSU committee members, will show you the most important places to know: Sainsbury's, Market Square, the Union, King's college chapel etc. There will also be a punting tour conducted in conjunction.

Cambridge Nightlife Tour (Thursday September 29, The Regal (St Andrews Street), 8:30pm) - Visit the various pubs in Cambridge all in one go! You will soon hear stories about the famous so-and-so who frequented particular pubs, and what better way to mingle and make new friends?

University Orientation Day (Friday September 30, Babbage Lecture Theatre, 8:30am-1:30pm) - The University will be holding a one-day orientation especially for international students. You will get valuable information about services and support available to you throughout your studies. Preregistration recommended via www.admin.cam.ac.uk/offices/international/orientation/

Cocktails workshop at the Union (Friday September 30, The Cambridge Union, 7pm) - A very popular event for past international freshers! Come for delicious cocktails in a great atmosphere, followed with music in the bar.

Trip to Grantchester- (Saturday October 1, meet by Anchor Pub (Silver Street), 11am) - A relaxing excursion to Grantchester. We'll walk along the River Cam to have tea and scones at The Orchard- a lovely tea garden frequented by various famous people in the past!

Get-together with older international students (Sunday October 2, King's College, Chetwynd Room, 2pm-4pm) Meet second years and third years doing the same subject from a similar part of the world. Nibbles provided!

Start of Term: Kelsey Kerridge Societies' Fair (Tuesday 4 October: Kelsey Kerridge Sports Centre, 11am-6:30pm)- Find us at the iCUSU booth at the Societies' Fair for information about our events in the coming term, get our goodies, or just to say hi!
